

Dominic V. Daddio

September 14, 1923 - November 4, 2013

Dominic V. Daddio 90, of Hamden entered into eternal rest November 4, 2013 at CT. Hospice in Branford after a 7 month battle with cancer. He is the husband of 52 years to Helen (Longobardi) Daddio. Mr. Daddio was born in New Haven on September 14, 1923 son of the late Joseph and Anna (Aitro) D'Addio, Sr. He was an East Haven resident until 1979, then moved to Hamden. He served in the U.S. Army from 1943-1946. He worked for Armstrong Rubber Co., M&B Electric, and the State of CT. as an Electrician until retiring in 1986. Dominic was always a hard worker and good provider for his family. He enjoyed his winter trips to Florida with his brother Phil. He also enjoyed going to the movies and dining out weekly with his wife, family and occasional friends. He leaves his only daughter , Joann Daddio-Geriak, his only grandson, Thomas O'Bara and his son in law Daniel Geriak, all of Hamden. Dominic is predeceased by his brothers, Philip Daddio, Joseph D'Addio and a sister Mary (Daddio) Pagliuca. He was honored to have his Uncle, Vincent Aitro age 101, of East Haven available to talk with during his last days. Many thanks to ALL of our wonderful friends at Townhouses at Mt. Carmel for their constant love, help and support during our stressful times. All of your unending kindness will always be remembered.

“ Hi Dad, Guess who? It's Joann. Miss you everyday and feel your presence. Thanks for all you gave me, courage, knowledge and strength to carry on and care for my mother without you. At this late date, I know you are holding Helen's hand as she has passed on and joined you now. I felt your presence when you came to accompany Helen to heaven. Thanks for all the guidance throughout the 6 years you have passed. Now my job is complete and you and mom are together forever in heaven with your parents, siblings, and friends. God Speed Dad.....until we meet again!!

“ Death of a loved one is never easy. May you find an abundance of comfort in your family, friends and especially the future blessings found in God's word. He has promised to swallow up death forever and reunite us with all who fall asleep in death. (Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29) As a God of love who cannot lie we can certainly trust all he says to come true. (1 John 4:8 & Titus 1:2) It is my hope that these words and the fond memories of your loved one sustain you through this most difficult time.
