“ I have many memories of Saemus from when our kids were toddlers. Always an honest opinion with a strong willed attitude. I remember having some great laughs with Saemus and all the fun we would have at his famous Christmas parties. God Bless and RIP.

“ Along the road we meet people that are good company and leave an everlasting impression. Jim was one of these people. I want to thank Jim for the good relationship we had and for the journey we made together. I will never forget our boat trip on Long Island Sound - definitely in hindsight it was too short. Nor will my family – Marion, Johannes and Carolina – forget Jim’s visit to my hometown in Belgium and the great evening we spent together. Thank you for these precious moments. Our sympathy goes out to Jim’s family, especially to his wife and children, and our hearts and thoughts are with them in these difficult times.

“ Mr. Morrell, as I affectionately called him, was a great guy and a fantastic parent. He was active in both Jamie's and Emily's lives. I lived down the street from him, and it was always a pleasure to spend time with his entire family; what wonderful people. He will be missed.
