“ My dearest sister Jo-Ann and great niece, Jenna: I can hardly write this as my heart is aching so badly in the loss of your son and father. You know how much I truly loved him. I treated him like another son. I feel so blessed that Joey and I had such a close bond and I will cherish those memories. I hope you can find some comfort in knowing that God saw how tired he was and he wanted to spare you and Jenna any more pain to watch your loved one so sad all the time. We know he is "safely home" now in our loving Savior's arms, no more pain or harm. Feel secure knowing Meena and Pop Pop are watching over him now and you have a special Angel by your side always. I am here for you both always. I wish I could shelter you from the hurt but I can't, but you have so many people who love and care. In peace and love forever, "Mag", Auntie "Meem". Rest in peace dear Joey.

“ Jenna, loosing a dad is the most difficult thing you will have to go thru. My heart breaks for you. Remember he will always be there to talk to, to listen and to guide you thru life's journey. One can never understand why God choose to give wings so young but he must have his reasons. Your dad is now your special angel to watch over you carry him with you forever. May he rest in peace and soar with the angels. Love you Yvonne and Bob
