“ I had the pleasure of knowing Maureen for the past 20+ years. Maureen was a wonderful women with a gentle spirit. She enjoyed oldies music, a good cup of coffee and oreo cookies. Maureen loved her family and would enjoy her weekends with Mom swimming and shopping. Upon her return from Hamden to Mansfield we would hear all about her time with Mom and the fun she had. Through Maureen we witnessed Emily grow up and heard all about "baby Jack". Maureen will be sadly missed and warmly remembered by all who knew and loved her.

“ Peace and Love to all the Family. I'm so Blessed I got to meet Maureen and do our Burger King out trips with her Mom. Its funny how things cross your mind when you hear someone has passed. Shirley such a devoted Mom and always wanted the best for her. Well, Shirley my love she is with The Lord, your Husband and your Son. Does it get better than that!!!

I'm always here for you, love and God Bless to you and your family. Maureen was Blessed to have such a devoted brother and sister and family.
