“ To the Cusick Family,

I am so very sorry for your loss. I remember all of you from Saint Peters where Stephen and I went to school together. Even as a child, Nancy was very kind. It sounds like she was an amazing person and positively influenced many people. I know you will find comfort in the memories you have with her. Please know that you will remain in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My Dear, Sweet, Cusick Family...Words cannot express the sadness I am feeling for your loss of Nancy. No matter what she faced each day she managed to laugh, smile, and, always kept a good spirit and attitude. She fought a long and hard fight and had amazing strength. Your wonderful family stood right by her side every step of the way with your ultimate love and caring, as well as her BFF, Pat. Wishing you all peace in your heart knowing she is not suffering any longer, and, she is with her Dad. I know there are not many words of comfort during this sad and difficult time in your lives but know she will truly be missed and never forgotten.

My Deepest Sympathy and Love,

Carolyn Clarke

“ Nancy, while I haven't seen you in many years, i will take with me to my own grave the lesson you taught when our motley group of apple pickers hiked the northern stretch of Vermont's Long Trail. It was a cold and ultimately snowy November when I learned from you to stop and absorb the wisdom of the woods as you pass through. Thank you for your wisdom, Nancy. The angels with whom you now soar are lucky to have you in their midst. Meg Piercy

“ Dear Cusicks. The loss of Nancy cuts to the core of who I am. She along with your whole family were and have been a central part of my life in the New Haven area. From serendipitously meeting Nancy and John at the remote back of Dwight Miller's Orchard, to hiking the Long Trail, to the many countless adventures and times together, I say goodbye to a big part of my heart with Nancy's passing. I know she is not suffering anymore, and along with the many other examples she set for me, I now know what battling disease while maintaining your dignity, your open heart, and your smile looks like. I will always think of you and miss you Nance. My deepest condolences to your family.
