“ I met Adele when my mom and Mel were residents at Benchmark. We bonded instantly. I admired her strength and spirit each time she was presented with another obstacle. She used to sneak chocolate to my mother, and she cried with me on the day I lost mom.
May she rest easy and be playing cards with Mel again.

“ Where do I start? Adele hired me @ Dexsil corporation may 5, 1989
I told her I could type I might of told a little white lie while typing anyway I was hired for production instead and for then a great friendship began with trading recipes and such but Adele was the queen of treats and such and you could tell she put her heart & soul into every dish she made besides cooking we often traded medical facts she seemed to know a lot of that as well . After she left Dexsil we still continued a friendship for many years . I will never forget her rest easy Wendy Graves “ Adele was a long time friend and fellow worker of Philip Andrews at Dexsil. She was an excellent baker and loved to cook and share her goodies with friends and would make cakes on birthdays. We will miss her. Lois and Philip Andrews.
