

Albert P. Maggelet

September 26, 1943 - November 19, 2021

With his wife and daughter by his side, Albert P. Maggelet, 78 of North Haven died in his home after a remarkable 4 year journey with pancreatic cancer. He was the beloved husband of Barbara Rousseau Maggelet, loving father of Scott (Sarah) and Mark Maggelet, Lori Eister (Joe) and Aleshia Rousseau Stahl (Christian) and brother of Andrea Duffy. He was known as Boppy to his 6 cherished grandchildren. Al was born in New Haven on Sept 26, 1943 to the late George and Harriet Maggelet (Ziomkiewicz). He retired from Keane Inc where he worked as a software consultant for 17 years. He never missed an episode of Jeopardy or a UCONN basketball game. Al loved going to tag sales and was an avid antique dealer, maintaining a spot at the Clinton Antique Center for 20 years (thank you boys). Al will always be remembered for his original sense of humor and honest spirit.

“ Upon hearing of our dear friends passing our hearts filled with sorrow and our eyes filled with tears, but soon our memories reminded us of the fun, laughter and love we shared for years. Al will always be with us for our remaining years. Love and tears, John and Marty. ❤️

“ So many memories with you Al! Thank you for letting me part of your family all these years! So grateful to still be close with Aleshia after thirty something years! Thank you for taking us on Saturdays antiquing, to endless tag sales, visiting babcia. Also dealing with so many Saturday night sleepovers where Aleshia and I stayed up until 3am laughing the night away. 7:30 pickups for school because we were too cool for the bus, and Saturday mall trips!! So happy to be part of endless family parties and the fact I will never live down falling down the stairs into the electrical box at the house! Love you Al! And love you Barbara, Aleshia and family!! Sending you peace, love and healing thoughts during this time!!
