“ We are so sorry to hear of Alice passing. She was so nice to go with Shirley and see our dad, Stanley, when he was sick. He really appreciated it. Laura has been sick and is now in a nursing home. Can't make it on Monday as we have an appointment at Smilow on that day. Our prayers are with you all.

“ To my Dearest Aunt Alice, may you rest in peace together with your two beautiful sisters and mother in happiness as I know this was your greatest wish. I will miss you very much along with all the great times we spent together. We were not only niece and aunt, we were best friends. You will be forever in my heart💖
