“ We were shocked and saddened to hear of the death of Andrew. Our heartfelt sympathies to Catherine and their two daughters. We are very sure although just having met Andrew that he is looking down and watching over his family. One could plainly see how much they meant to him. God bless you all..

“ I remember Andrew from my childhood. I was a friend of Burton Cottrell. I remember many Sundays being at Burton's house and Andrew would come with his young wife and at least one young child to 278 Norton street. to visit relatives including Mrs. Ruby his father's sister. Especially I remember Andrew helping us put a Christmas tree in a stand. Those are very fond memories of mine. My deepest sympathy to his family. Thomas Melillo

“ *Dear Grimaldi family, we send our profound sympathies to you. Andy was undoubtedly one of the nicest persons we've ever met. His clarinet playing was the best, and enjoyable for those of us who belong to the Elm City Banjo Society. We'll surely miss having him a part of our banjo family. God rest his soul.
