“ I worked with Angela back to the Harty Press days. My company CLC was on the same street as HartyPress. Angela and I worked on many projects together and became friends. Although we had lost touch in the last years I will always remember her kindness, laughter, love for her family and her patience trying to teach me to knit. RIP Angela you will be missed

“ I was blessed to know Angela, as well as Oma and Alyssa through our shared love of knitting and our weekly conclave at KNH. Such a wonderful woman! I recall her easing my worries about home buying by teaching me how to look for the "good bones" of a house. One could tell from speaking to her for just a few minutes that she too was good at heart and soul of it. I miss her dearly. May she rest in peace.

“ I was deeply saddened to learn of Angela's passing. She was my neighbor for many years. Angela was a caring and compassionate person who always enjoyed a good conversation. My deepest sympathy to Dan and Alyssa for the loss of their beloved mother. May she remain in their hearts forever as she rests eternally in peace.

“ Worked with Angela for several years at Harty Press. We kept in touch and she would call me and several of her other friends from work regularly. A caring and wonderful woman and a great friend. I will miss her surprise calls and her inner beauty. She always cared about others. My deepest sympathy to her family, God bless you and thanks for just being you.

“ Angela was a beloved member of our knitting family. She treated each of us with love, respect, and care, and always with good humor! I admired her greatly, especially how she interacted with and took care of her mom. We'll miss you, Angela.

“ I was at many Tuesday Knit Nights at Knit New Haven with Angela. She was a vibrant and fun member of the group. Angela was also a skilled and gifted knitter and always willing to help anyone with their knitting problems. She is gone too soon and will be missed.

“ I had the honor and privilege of working with Angela. I loved how she took a sincere interest in listening intently to what made others happy, whether it be about family, hobbies, pets or other simple day-to-day things in life. In a busy office, even the shortest interaction with Angela was always a pleasant one. I will miss Angela's good-hearted presence and I offer my prayers for peace and comfort to her loving family and dearest friends. Pat M.
