“ It was with a heavy heart to learn of Ann's sudden passing. I remember that she was one of my first friends in our dancing school days, later to learn her dad and my Uncle Sal were good friends. May your fond memories of Ann continue to live on.

Warm regards and with deepest sympathy,

“ I was so saddened to hear about Ann. She was a wonderful person who I loved spending time with. My deepest sympathy to Mrs. Gaetano, Andrea and Peter as you say good-bye. I wish I was able to attend the service but know you will all be in my thoughts. I believe she is now in heaven with Art and Etta and they are looking down on all of you together. Hugs and prayers to you all. Love Anne Barone D'Agostino

“ Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy to the Mrs. Gaetano, Andrea, Peter and the entire family. Ann-Louise was a valued and treasured member of the team here in the House Clerk's Office. Ann-Louise took tremendous pride in the daily publication of the House Journal. Her helpful disposition and optimistic outlook on life will be missed. May God's presence sustain you during this difficult time. All of us here at the Office of the House Clerk have you and your family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ On behalf of the Looking Forward program, please accept our sincere condolences on the passing of dear Ann. She joined our fashion show committee last year with such enthusiasm and put her heart and soul into honoring her sister's memory. We were shocked by her sudden passing and will miss her cheerful, upbeat "we can do anything" personality. Our thoughts and prayers are with Andrea, and the rest of her family.
