“ To the entire Nolan family, once again I would like to express my sympathies on behalf of all the Kennedys. Memories of your wife and mother will always be grand. She lived her life as a wonderful person surrounded by wonderful friends and family. A true testament to her and her character and, assuredly, the Lord will welcome her home.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Ann was such a nice person always so friendly. We were classmates as you know and I can say without question she was one the nicest people to ever attend St. Mary's during our time. Always a friend and always willing to be helpful. She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ Dear Jack, John, Liz and James...Nanny was so fortunate to have you all there by her side when she needed you most. You were a great comfort to her. She was also blessed to have such loving grandchildren who were attentive to her every need. We all loved her and will miss her so. It was Momma (Granny) and Pop who prepared us for these difficult days by instilling such a strong Family bond within each of us. Your Mom, our Nanny and Auntie Ann will always be in our thoughts and prayers and we are here as a Family to support you all.
Love, Pat & Karen
