

Ann Hargett Sullivan

November 18, 1925 - April 8, 2014

In New Haven April 8, 2014, Ann Hargett Sullivan 88, of Hamden. Wife of the late Russell T. Sullivan.. Loving mother of Scott T. Sullivan of Hamden, Mark R. Sullivan (Katherine) of North Haven, Timothy S. Sullivan, Ret. HFD of Hamden and Maryann Noniewicz (Thomas) of Madison. Also survived by her cherished grandchildren Kevin, Jordan, Gregory, Julie, Thomas, Robert Sullivan, Caroline and Abby Noniewicz. Predeceased by a son Christopher J. Sullivan and a brother Raymond Hargett. Born in Brooklyn, NY November 18, 1925, daughter of the late John D. & Anna V. Broderick Hargett. Ann grew up in West haven and attended St. Lawrence School, West Haven High School and Albertus Magnus College. She began her working career as a social worker at Yale New Haven Hospital, upon graduation from college. While raising 5 children, she also worked for Southern CT State University and the School of Business at Quinnipiac University. Mrs. Sullivan loved to travel, and enjoyed spending time with friends and family. Ann was very religious and very active in her parish and was one of the founding families of Church of the Ascension in Hamden. There she was head of the Social Action Committee for several years, volunteered at Columbus House to feed the under privileged. She was also a church lector, and a minister of the Eucharist. Ann loved her family, loved life, and lived life to the fullest.
