“ I am just finding out about this TODAY. Your transition took place during the time of my Mother in Law and Step Mom also Transitioning. So I missed this. I asked why I had not seen you around and was told of your passing. I am so deeply saddened. I remember our conversation and tears over the passing of your husband. I am in shock Anna. I will always remember our personal greeting "Hey Now....Hey Now"!!! It will Never leave me. Rest in Peace Love!

“ I am so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful daughter, Anna. I was a frequent customer of Taste Restaurant in North Haven and Anna was my waitress on many occasions. I lost my son in 2010 and I went to Taste to request a donation for a fundraiser we were having in his memory. Anna helped us get the donation and also told me she knew my son, Michael Sage, and many of his friends. So we connected on yet another level. I did not know that she was part of my son's middle school crowd and many of his friends remember her fondly. She shared with me that she lost her young husband and was dealing with that loss. I hope you read this and if you ever want to connect with me, please feel free. My number is 203-623-6615 and my email is lrossi1313@gmail.com. We have more in common than we know. Again, I am so very sorry. Anna was wonderful. I will remember her fondly.

She was so dazzling, it was impossible to look away. That's Why we made you Captain! Ruler of the Ridiculi! Teacher of the The Ridiculum Curriculum! As "Rouge", I'll look after the ship and pass on what we have learned. But our flag will forever remain at half mass. I love you, Anna. I'll look for your star.

“ My beautiful friend. Thought I would have a million me chances to say how I adore you. I've shared so many things with you, even in silence. Even tho silence for us never lasted me than a couple minutes. I was given the honor of having your wedding at my hone surrounded by all the people who share the same deep love for you. A memory so beautiful. A Madonna girl with Timberlake flair. A one liner come back sister, a dreamer, a crafter, a master of many things and now adding Angel to your list of titles who hold. Smile at me from the heavens and dance away my sweet. My heart is broken, but I know you will be around me until I see you again. I want to be selfish and have you here but can't question God's plan. I love you and will celebrate you and the exceptional grace and beauty you hold. I will never say goodbye. Do things huge in the heavens so we all know you are still OUR AMAZING ANNA EVEN IN SPIRIT.
