

Anna B. Rausch

June 11, 1929 - March 29, 2014

Anna B. Rausch, 84, of Hamden passed away on March 29, 2014 at Arden Courts of Hamden where she resided for the past four years. She was born June 11, 1929 in New Haven, daughter of the late Argia (Michael) Puglia and Adamo Bergami. Anna was predeceased by her husband, Alvin J. Rausch. She was a loving and devoted mother to her five surviving daughters, Margaret (Peter) Vincent of Westbrook, Kathy (David) Carlson of Hamden, Carol (Nick) Colatosti of Manassas, VA, Bobbie Rausch of Portland, ME and Deb Costello of Bethel, ME. She was an outstanding and talented homemaker who enjoyed crafts, needlework, gardening, caring for animals and baking. She was happiest when spending time with her family at home or at the family cabin in New Hampshire. Her seven grandchildren, Christopher (Tovah) Vincent, Matthew Vincent, David Vincent, Sarah Vincent, Meghan Costello, Wyatt Costello and Christine Colatosti brought great joy and fun to her life. They have many happy memories of their adventures and experiences with "Gram". Anna also leaves three great-grandchildren. Anna was proud of her forty-four years of service to the children of Hamden and to the Hamden Police Department as a school crossing guard. For many years she was a fixture at her post on Mix Ave. where she safely guided several generations of students making their way to and from Shepherd Glen School. Anna's family wishes to acknowledge the staff of Arden Courts and Partnerships Adult Day Care for the loving, compassionate care that they provided.
