“ Mr. Drony and Family,

Please accept my sincerest condolences on the passing of your wife, mom, grandmother and sister.

I have many fond memories of the days spent with the Gaelic football teams and social events at the club in the late 70's and early 80's.

Mrs. Drony was always a present and active participant and one of the women that could always be counted on to make sure things ran smooth.

May your fond memories of days gone bye, soon replace the sorrow you are feeling today.

Sincerely, Tom Carew

“ Our deepest condolences to Mike and Family. Agnes was a Beautiful and kind Lady and lots of fun as we worked on the Irish Woman and Man Banquet for over 30 years. On the Thursday night before the Banquet Carolyn, Maureen and Miriam would go to Agnes's house to get the tables seatings set and Agnes would have made her Special Apple Pie, which was enjoyed by all after a difficult task. Mike did join us for the tea and pie and the gossip. We will miss you Agnes. Miriam & Joe Lillis
