“ To the family of Tony Matarese, My dad's name is Dominic Staffieri. They went to New York to Ground 0 together and were good friends. Dom and Tony had a lot in common because they were talented in fixing everything. My Dad enjoyed his company very much especially when they went to Dunkin Donuts for coffee. Tony was a kind, helpful person. He loved his family and talked about them with pride. Rest in Peace, Tony. Dominic Staffieri and family.

“ Michael and Family,

I am so very sorry to hear of your dad's passing. May the beautiful memories you hold of him in your heart help carry you through this difficult loss. May he rest in peace and forever be a special guardian angel watching over his loved ones.

“ Tony was our neighbor. He was a kind and friendly man always telling us about the neighborhood and reminiscing about good times.

He was sharp for his age and never missed a chance to beep his car horn and wave to us as he drove passed. Tony loved animals and would often tell us about his past pets. Everyday he left a dog treat in his mailbox for our dog, Max. Max looked forward to these treats, always pulling us towards his mailbox the closer we got. If Tony was in his garage, sitting in his office chair smoking his cigar, we would let Max off his leash and he would run straight for Tony. Seeing Max and Tony together made us all very happy.

Although we've only had the pleasure of knowing Tony for 4 years, he's made a lasting impression on our hearts. They say, it's the little things, but for some, the little things mean so much.
