“ I have lost a dear friend. Moving to Connecticut in the 60's with my husband and three small children was a scary thing. We met Barb and Walt and her three children and immediately I knew we found a " home away family". Barb welcomed us with open arms and that never changed. Moved from Hamden about 40 years ago, but our friendship has only grown stronger. Last night I went through pictures of our times together and it brought a smile on my lips and tears in my eyes. Rest in peace Barbara until we meet again.
