“ To: Miss Gettings and to Brian's other family and friends. We were heartbroken when Ruby told us the news about your life partner. Even though we don't know you yet, nor did we know Brian, you are in our thoughts during this very sad time. He was too young to be taken from you. We hope that his memory will always be a blessing and that you'll be able to look back on all the wonderful times you had. Sincerely, the family of Ruby Shapiro (Leora, Eric, Ruby & Elias)

“ I attended St Rita's with Brian and several of the guys mentioned in his obituary. This picture must have be taken around 2000-2001.

To this day, he was one of the kindest and funniest people I've ever known. We stayed in touch on social media throughout the years. As we both worked in advertising, our recent conversations centered around our respective careers. But he always maintained that warm, friendly, and funny personality. I can honestly say some of my funniest and best memories involved Brian, all filled with shenanigans and hysterical laughs. My sincerest condolences to Kathy, Jim, Tim and Danny, and all his cousins. He will be terribly missed.

“ I have been blessed to grow up alongside such a funny, kind, and loyal person. My older cousin and best friend has made our many good memories become moments I will cherish forever. Life without you will never be the same, and I can't believe you were in such a rush to see Gremo, but I am eternally grateful to have spent so much of my life with you, especially our family parties. Your friend group only became larger with age, your ideal day was spent enjoying the company of loved ones, and you could make anyone life at any moment. I have never felt this sad, but you would be so happy to hear how many times I burst out laughing reminiscing recently. Missing you my man ❤️

Cheers,

Ter
