“ Brian was funny, kind and so thoughtful. When I first met him back in 2009, it was as if we'd been friends for years, because he was so easy to talk to and welcoming. Amongst his friends here in NYC, our hearts are broken. He was loved and admired by all of us.
My sincerest condolences to Susie, Danny and Ben.

“ Our hearts are broken, for a special family. Having watched the love shared between the Huffs was always a joy and blessing for our extended Palaia family. Brian lived a courageous life full of passion and spirit. He has left us too soon, but was a gift from God for the time spent among us all. Peace and grace,

Susie, Danny and Ben,

Our condolences on the passing of Brian. We watched him grow into a great young man. We will be sending a donation to the Shriners Hospital for Children in his name. Unfortunately we will not be able to attend the Memorial Saturday because we need to pick up a family member at Bradley Airport. Hope to see all of you soon. Love, Richard and Carol Del Vecchio.
