“ Teresa was an amazing mother, who always put her children first, and an incredibly supportive, loving caring grandmother Kendal, Justin, Meghan, Owen, and Nathan. She gave of herself more than anyone I have ever known. I had the pleasure to enjoy many Thanksgiving dinners with Teresa and the family. She made really delicious Irish brown bread and always cooked full dinners everyday for her family. She worked hard all her life. I will miss her Irish lilt, her humor, her friendship and her smile.

“ I remember how Teresa was a fantastic mother who gave without end to her children, and to her grandchildren. She had such an generous heart and invited me for Thanksgiving dinners over the years. She had a great sense of humor. She bore her illness with immense courage, fortitude and faith. RIP Teresa, you will be greatly missed by many who knew and loved you.
