“ It has been years since Patrick and Paul Lillis remember me from St. Rita's School. I was in a grade between them. I do remember that my parents hired Mrs. Bridie Lillis to cater at some of their cocktail and dinner parties. She did a great job and the staff she had with her were personable and professional. I am sorry for your loss.

“ I lived at 112 Harmon Street, two houses away from the Lillis Family!! I was a teenager when we moved in, the whole neighborhood (mostly irishish) became family!! Bridie, was like the "MOTHER HEN"!! I am 67 years old now and by most standards an old man, but this lady taught me how to be graceful, honorable, and decent through all stages of life!! Thank You Bridie Lillis for Lessons of Life!! I have no doubt you are already having a cold one at the "GOLDEN BAR" with GOD HIMSELF!!
