“ Sometimes you meet a person who etches elevated memory in your heart. This describes Carol. Among a few short times of being with her, along with her good friend & my sister Amy, Carol's vast presence was so enjoyed. Her beauty of exuberance & intelligence dwell on many levels, & her infinite Spirit lives in our hearts. Great sympathy we extend to your family, in such astounding loss. Susan

“ I was so sad to hear about Carol's passing. I knew her for all her years that she was up at HHS. She was a wonderful worker & friend there! "Carolina" was my paesana at Hamden High School when she was there! We used to talk about all things Italian. She loved Italy, her family and others with her whole heart! I will always remember her with a smile on her face & the pride she felt when she talked about her beloved family. When Carol left the high school, no matter where I saw her, it was like I just saw her yesterday. I will miss bumping into her at places like Brooksvale Park or wherever she worked for Cert for the town events. May she rest in peace. My deepest condolences to Carol's family & friends. May the wonderful memories that you have of Carol as a mom, wife, sister & friend comfort you all at this most difficult time. Paula Rochniak, HHS Italian Teacher

“ Keeping Bob and Steven in daily prayers. I am going to miss my sister Carol. I know one thing for sure my mom and dad will be excited to see you up there as my second Angel watching down over me. I don't have a lot of words right now, but I do know God brought you home to rest. We didn't have a chance to go on our girl trip, or even get my permit. But in honor of you I will make sure I get it. I will miss our late night text messages in messenger and on Facebook. We talked about anything. I am going to miss you dearly Carol, Rip my dear friend, love you always ❤️🙏❤️
