

Carol F Young

March 2, 1940 - May 31, 2021

Carol Young, 81, of North Haven, CT passed away peacefully May 31, 2021 surrounded by family at Connecticut Hospice after a long battle with kidney disease. She was the widow of George E. Young who predeceased her in 1994. Born March 2, 1940 in New Haven, Mrs. Young was the daughter of the late Thomas and Katherine (Hunt) Fogarty.

Mrs. Young briefly worked at SNET prior to becoming a homemaker. Her great joy were her children who survived her, George T. Young of Cranbury Township, PA, Brian (Jamie) Young of Killingworth, Kathleen (Steven) Boyce of Bethlehem, Eileen (Andrew) Bukowski of South Windsor and Carolyn (Mathew) Wallick of Plainville MA. Her greatest joy were her beloved grandchildren, George, James, Gregory, Thomas, Wesley, Kaitlyn, Katherine, Emma, Jackson, Ian, Samantha, Ryan and AJ. She will also be dearly missed by multiple cousins and close friends that considered her family.

Mrs. Young was a communicant of St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Parish for many years. She also had a deep passion for giving back to her community – for many years serving the homeless in New Haven with the midnight run along with many other charities.

She was predeceased by her loving husband and beautiful granddaughter Katherine who were awaiting her arrival in Heaven.

Memorial contributions may be made to her church, St Elizabeth of the Trinity, 44 Washington Ave., North Haven, CT 06473 or to Connecticut Hospice, 100 Double Beach Rd, Branford, CT 06405

Friends are invited to go directly to St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Parish St. Barnabus Church, Saturday at 12:00 noon for a Mass of Christian Burial. “ *My cousin was an amazing woman! Her family always came first and her friends. She was always about doing something! She was very active up until only a few months ago. I will remember our trip to Aruba and us being roommates in the condo. We couldn't decide who snored louder than that other!
I love you Carol and will miss you!!!
