“Death of a loved one is never easy. May you find an abundance of comfort in your family, friends and especially the future blessings found in God's word. He has promised to swallow up death forever and reunite us with all who fall asleep in death. (Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29) As a God of love who cannot lie we can certainly trust all he says to come true. (1 John 4:8 & Titus 1:2) It is my hope that these words and the fond memories of your loved one sustain you through this most difficult time.

“Last night I got the news that my Aunt Catherine passed away. She was a neighbor to my family for my first 3 years and at every life event since. She left this life in a most wonderful way. With her son and daughter in law at her home, she looked at her son and asked for her shoes. He looked confused and asked why. These are her final words:

"I am going home. The arrangements have all been made with my mother, my father, my brother and my husband. Please get my shoes."

She put her shoes on and breathed her Soul to the Almighty.

Welcome Home, Aunt Catherine, Welcome Home.

“ Sorry this did not go thru yesterday.... Catherine was a long time good friend of mine. We shared a lot of good memories over the years. I was deeply impressed with the fact that before she died she asked her son Richard for her shoes. When he asked her why she wanted her shoes she said she was "going home to see her father, mother, brothers and her husband." How beautiful and what a gift to "go home that way." Please accept our sincere sympathy for her family. She was a good woman.....Rosemarie and Mario DiRinzo
