“ I first met Katie & Bobby at "The NY, New Haven & Hartford Railroad" Offices on Meadow St.in New Haven, where I also worked. My Father, Lyman, worked there too. My family lived on Ellsworth Ave. next door to the Fire Station.They lived on West St. and I often went over to their house there. Over the years we have all been friends and to now know that Bobby has passed on too must be really hard for all of their remaining relatives. I am sorry for them, but know that these 2 family members were so close and now still are. I would say the thing I enjoyed most about Katie & Bobby was their Irish sense of humor and their ability to laugh.
