“ Hello,

My name is Sonja (Cox) Johnson. I am so sorry for your lost. I went to and graduated from ST. Martin DePorres.....I was there for 7 years. At this stage of my life (I am in my 60's) my memory is not super, however I remember Ms. Walsh as being one of the most kindest and gentle persons I have ever met. As soon as I saw her picture, I remembered her immediately.....I actually visualized her in her office, and how nice she was.

I pray God holds your family in His mighty hands during this most challenging time. Ms. Walsh was a very special person, and I am sure my ST. Martin Classmates would say the same.

God bless you all.

“ Dear Robin,

I did not know your Mom but I do know she was blessed with a loving and caring daughter who was by her side till the end. How fortunate she was, and I am sure she appreciated all you did and your time together. It is not easy losing a Mother but I know you have many memorable moments you will treasure always. You have always had a special place in our hearts and we feel your pain. We are thinking of you during this difficult time in your life and keeping you in our prayers. God Bless.

Love, Sandy and Dieter

“ Thanks Aunt Cathy for fixing my bangs after my Mom cut them before school picture day, for the wonderful homemade birthday cakes, for making Saturday afternoons party-time, and especially for giving me two awesome cousins - Tommy and Robin.
Love you,

“ Aunt "Kathy was a joy to be with. I am saddened by her passing. In fact this week, on Thursday I was remembering how she said that her sister, my precious Grandma "G", got all the brains and she got the looks! Truly heaven is a brighter place now with her, and the world is little less bright with out her.
She will be missed here dearly.. But she is rejoiced over in Heaven
...
And I believe she is in my future.
And also will live in forever in my memories..
Especially her smile.
My heartfelt condolences to all those who knew her and a special hug to Cousin Robin and a real big hug to my special AJ.
Sent with love and hope,
Her great Nephew and great Niece in law,
