“ I first met Catherine in 2006 because she was my Career Awareness teacher. Words can't describe how instrumental she was when it came to helping me discover my passion. In January 2007 I had to create a career brochure for my final project. While searching through a booklet of various professions I came across Urban and Regional Planning.

The issue of urban planning caught my attention because it revolves around the idea of creating vibrant urban cores and sustainable communities. As I continued to learn about urban planning in her class—my interest in this field stretched beyond her classroom.

Once I finished her class, Catherine encouraged me to research universities that offered degrees in city planning. In 2008 I went to New York City to visit a major university. As soon as I stepped foot outside my car the first words I said were: “this is really cool!”

Catherine Wright knew the ingredients that fired up the human imagination. As her student, I can fully attest that her greatest gift is being able to guide students towards forging future careers.

I want to take this time to personally thank Catherine Wright. You are such an incredible individual; always know you are truly missed. I can't wait to see you again someday.

“ I taught with Cathie at Hamden High. Cathie is a friend you always hold close in your heart. Even though we had not seen each other in years her smile and laugh is vivid. When I was injured she was there with gifts, groceries and friendship. So sad, my condolences to her family.

“ Cathie and I were co-workers at Middletown High School for 10 years. Our birthdays are only two weeks apart--same year! We didn't realize this until the year we turned 50. Cathie is two weeks older than me, and I am two weeks older than another member of our department, Mike.

My colleague Shirley and I were so pleased that Cathie's family knew so much about her career here at Middletown High. Cathie's eulogy hit most of what she did right on the head—it was good to know that you all knew.

Cathie's students miss her greatly because she touched them so deeply with her compassion and endless devotion to help prepare them for their lives ahead.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers to find your way through this tough time.

“ I worked with Cathie at MHS. Our rooms were across from each other for the past 5 years and we enjoyed many long talks both personal and work related.. As a special educator, I truly appreciated Cathie's enthusiasm, respect and love for my students. She was always willing to go the extra mile, modifying assignments and working directly with my students to make them feel accepted and successful. I will miss you Cathie. May God bless your loved ones.

“ Cathie was my childhood friend. I too have great memories, funny stories, and truly enjoyed our days and nights on the Hill. She was fun, but also the voice of reason in our little group. Feeling a great loss. My condolences to her family and friends.

“ Cathie was a dear friend and colleague of mine in the Business Education Department of Middletown High School for 10 years. She was a dedicated professional educator with the patience of an angel. She worked endless hours motivating and challenging her students and contributing critical input for our departmental projects. Cathie always had a funny story to make us laugh, and she was devoted to helping her students achieve their dreams. I also worked with Cathie at the Middlesex County Chamber of Commerce, Middletown, CT where she was a treasured educator teaching business classes for long-term unemployed clients. She was an inspiration to everyone who knew her. May God bless her and the Wright family.

“ Over the past years I have so enjoyed my daily conversations with Cathie. She was a gifted conversationalist delighting in telling of her son's athletic achievements and the milestones in her brothers, sister, and their children and grandchildren's lives. Whether attending a family picnic, her sister's wedding or the recent graduation of her niece from college she was just so very upbeat and excited to share about her family she so dearly loved.

Her attention to gift giving at the holidays was legendary-one year she arranged to have canned snow sent to me in California so I could enjoy a white Christmas. Cathie had a knack for wrapping gifts in truly an extraordinary fashion. She had already started her Christmas lists and shopping at the time of her passing.

Cathie was selfless, caring and always willing to go the extra mile for friend. Our conversations were steeped in laughter because no one could tell a story quite the way she did.

My heart is heavy with profound sorry for this bright light to have been extinguished way too soon. She was a once in a lifetime friend. My deepest condolences to her family, friends and students.

“ I knew Cathi first through her wit, her sharp insights, and her sense of humor. She quickly became a warm presence, and then a treasured friend. She was there for me in grief and in difficulty. I treasure her friendship, and her memory. I will miss her so. She has left us too soon.
