

Claire K Rich

May 9, 1962 - October 20, 2024

Claire Rich, 62, of Hamden, CT passed away suddenly on October 20th. She was born on May 5, 1962, the daughter of William and Judith Keating. She is survived by her husband Bruce Rich, her children Nolan Rich and Ellen Mayer (William), and her wonderful granddaughter Nora Mayer. Claire is also survived by her sisters Marybeth Keating of Hamden and Judy "Ellie" Killooy (James) of Madison, and her brother William Keating Jr. (Melissa) of Cheshire. She is also survived by her niece Molly Pellegrino (Nick) and her nephews Brendan Killooy, JW Keating, and Liam Keating. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and cherished friend. For the past 24 years, Claire worked as a teacher, coach, and summer camp director at Hamden Hall Country Day School. It was never really work for Claire – she truly loved being with the children every day! Claire accomplished more acts of kindness and giving than most people might accomplish in two lifetimes. “ This hits hard...I so loved the Keating sisters and was honored to have played basketball, and learn life lessons from Claire and Judy. Although we didn't stay in touch after high school, I can tell from the pictures she was the same kind gentle individual I knew. Thoughts and prayers to her family and friends. Kathy Orazietti

“ One of my fondest memories of Mrs. Rich was the 'gracious living' class that she taught in pre-K. Her name was often mentioned in our home as we set the table and enjoyed our own gracious living at home. She was truly one of a kind. Your family is in our thoughts.
