“ I am sorry for your lose. I did not know Connie, but I met her and her son Jason thru Judy Berger. Her friendship with Judy was lifelong. She must have been a wonderful person. I will pray for her.

“ I've known Connie since she was a year old. She was 4 when I married her brother! A bright, delightful child whom I enjoyed very much. When Jason was born, she and Paul were "over the moon" enthralled with their wonderful son, who continued to be a source of pride all their lives. Connie was always a loving, caring friend, and she will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

“ What I know of Connie, is that she raised a loving son who knows how to make others feel valued. She taught him to be strong, to be faithful and love others.
