“Cindy was my best friend in high school, and after. I loved her. We had so many good times while cheerleading and hanging out. I was in Cindy and Charlie’s wedding. It was a wonderful day! Cindy looked beautiful, and Charlie looked pretty handsome! As happens, we grew apart as our families grew.. But I knew about their lives because my sister would see them in church, and fill me in. I have great memories of the times we hung out, and double dated with Charlie and Carl, laughing and being silly. And Cindy and I thought we were so cool when she took the family car with the big fins. Was it a Chrysler?
I’m happy she has a wonderful family, and she looks so happy in the photos. Cindy was always the ‘cool’ one, and she was a kind and fun person.
I was undergoing cancer treatment, and was unable to share in her memorial. But my heart and mind were with her, and her family.

My thoughts and prayers are still with you all. And I’ll always have a special place in my heart for Cindy.
