“ Eileen, Ken and family,
I first saw Danny in a little league game from the outfield fence at Bassett 1, while standing next to his proud uncle, Mike. My son introduced me to Danny later on. They played ball together and on opposing teams. He liked and respected Danny and I did too. I believe there were a lot of us who knew him and did, a lot from the coach Rhone-Era. As game followers everyone saw Danny shine as an athlete and a respectful kid. There were many memorable baseball games and tournaments. And then the Green Bowl in senior year; they were all exciting games. It seemed to me Danny played with all his heart from the little league games, that Bowl game and I bet, beyond. He was full of life and energy, his smile was big, it radiated from deep down, ... it made us smile too. I'll remember Danny's big smile and his heart. You truly have our condolences
Sincerely, Eamon's dad, Armand

My family and I are so very sorry for your loss. So many great baseball memories with Danny and your beautiful family. The summer I got to hang out with both boys and mine was so much fun. RIP Danny, I know you will be the angel in heaven watching over your family now.

“ We are so glad that we had the privilege to know Danny and are beyond saddened by his passing. He was a bright light, a caring, generous young man. Our deepest sympathies and prayers are with his mother, father, siblings and with my niece, Jacqui. Our hearts are heavy. Rest in Peace in God's light, Dan. You will be missed.
