“ It was such a wonderful birthday celebration held for Danny so all friends and family could enjoy his company. We were honored to share in it. God looked down and saw Danny's tired face. He saw the road was getting ever more difficult and the path getting harder and harder to follow. In His mercy he closed Danny's eyes and blessed him "Peace be Thine". RIP friend.

“ I loved Danny and his entire Family! He and I met at Eli Whitney while his Sisters and mine played together. His Mom, Marge, worked at B&M on the corner of Fox and Ferry where I lived. Danny taught me fashion sense and took me shopping. I bought this outrageous yellow plaid pair of Bell bottoms and my first pair of blue, brushed corduroy Elephant Bells from Eli Moore along with a Paisley and a Psychedelic Blue baggie shirt! Danny was always happy. He was also about 2 feet taller than I. Lol. May Our Lord Jesus Christ rest his soul.
