

Dennis P. Regan

October 2, 1923 - January 19, 2025

Dennis P. Regan, 101, died peacefully on Sunday after a brief illness. He was the youngest of five children of immigrants Nellie O'Sullivan Regan and Bernard Charles Regan. Raised in Fair Haven, he lived for many years in Hamden and was predeceased by his wife Mary Jane Quinn Regan. He spoke often and proudly of his WWII service in the US Navy PT Boat Squadron 28. He retired from the US Postal Service and the State of Connecticut and enjoyed a long life with his family and pursuing his passion on the golf course. A wonderful father of two sons, Dennis (Andrea) and Thomas (Susan) Regan, he also leaves grandchildren Brendan, Tom and Katie as well as great grandson Camden. He was deeply loved by his family, liked and respected by all who knew him, and will live on forever in our hearts. There will be an open Mass of Christian burial Friday at 10 a.m. in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. Burial with Military Honors in All Saints Cemetery. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to CovenantHouse.org To leave an online condolence please visit www.siskbrothers.com

“ We are so sorry to learn of the passing of your dad. He was our wonderful next door neighbor on Bender Road and letter writing friend in more recent years. Our family will always remember his kindness and warmth. May all of the memories of your dad comfort you and give you peace. Our deepest sympathy, “ Always enjoyed my few rounds of golf I managed to play with Uncle Den. As he was notorious for being a very late riser, we could never ever play before 1pm. I received many golf tips from Dennis. Most memorable amongst them was " You are standing too close to the ball.....After you hit it!" How true.

"i'll be joining you on the first tee soon, Uncle Den. Meanwhile, know you were loved and will be dearly missed".
