“ Mom miss you so much, I feel like a big piece of me is missing. There hasn't been a day that I haven't thought of you. We went through pictures and tons of memories came flooding back. All good ones with some laughs and tears. I know you are at piece now and with us, I smell your Passion every once in awhile. It was an honor taking care of you over the last year and I miss getting you fired up about something. I love you and see you in my dreams.

“ I worked with Diane many, many years ago when she was the Food & Beverage Manager at the West Haven Motor Inn. I always thought she was a lovely person and she made the workday easier just by being there. Robert Kelley

“ I am so very saddened by the loss of my dear sister-in-law Diane. What do you say when you loose someone you've known and loved for 40 years? I am going to focus on the many happy memories. When I first met Diane I was 20 years old and dating Frank (Owen's brother). We were going to a 50's dance at the Elk's Club. When Diane came down the stairs, I thought she was the most beautiful women I had ever seen--stunning! We ended up having a great evening. Diane and I got to know each other very well that evening in the ladies room. Her exact words to me, "you know, Franny is a great man and he really likes you, don't f---k it up! That was Diane.

Owen and Diane's kitchen table was always the best gathering place. That's where I learned, by the best of the best, how to play pinochle. That's where I had my first pizza fritte, and the best damn homemade Italian sauce. We would all sit around that table, sharing stories, and drinking coffee with Diane's wonderful family until all hours of the night. Diane didn't care how late we stayed, even though she had two little ones to tend to. That was Diane.

I remember the time Owen, Diane, Frank and I went bowling. When I threw a gutter ball, Diane politely let everyone, including people around us know I threw a gutter ball. I giggled and said, "Diane, really?" She laughed and said, "I call them as I see them". We all had a good laugh. Well, not too soon after Diane threw a gutter ball. I cupped my hands around my mouth and YELLED "gutter ball!" Diane looked at me and smiled. I said, "I call them as I see them." Diane could give it and take it. She never got mad. That was Diane.

These are just a few of the many wonderful memories I have of Diane. Diane has the best husband, family, children, grand daughter, and friends. Diane was and will always be a blessing to every life she ever touched. I loved her and will always know that she loved me. That was Diane!

Love,
Melanie Carbrey

“ My heart goes out to the family. I was lucky enough to know Diane many yrs ago our kids played together and the many nites we spent playing yahtzee and she always won. My deepest regret was losing touch with her. But she was never forgotten.
