“ I was lucky enough to know Mrs. Civitello because I worked with her daughter, Donna for many years at the CT Motor Club and Nationwide Insurance. Donna always talked lovingly of her mother, and Mrs. C struck me as an amazing woman. I moved out of CT, and Donna and I kept in touch. Donna and Mrs. Civitello were extremely thoughtful, unfailingly sending a gift to my son every Christmas from the moment he was born, no matter how much I scolded them. Mrs. C had a very difficult time when Donna left her, but that was when I realized how truly amazing she was. She didn't become angry or bitter, but seemed to become stronger than ever. She knew that one day she would once again be with her Donna. That day has come. Rest in peace, Mrs. Civitello. You were a remarkable woman. I will miss you.

Love,
Olga Johnson
