

Dorothy DePalma

November 11, 1918 - October 22, 2009

In Hamden, October 22, 2009, Dorothy Mae Dean DePalma of River Rd., Hamden, wife of the late Edward DePalma and mother of Jeffrey DePalma and his wife Robin of Hamden, Donna T.Lee DePalma of California, Lynn O'Keefe and her husband Donald of Madison and the late Edward T. DePalma, grandmother of Jennifer and Elizabeth DePalma and Cori O'Keefe. She was predeceased by a sister, Gertrude Holland and two brothers, Thomas and John Dean. Mrs. DePalma was born in New Haven, November 11, 1918, daughter of the late Thomas and Jane Cahill Dean. She was a resident of Hamden for over 60 years, a parishoner of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church and a member of it's Marion Guild. She was a founder and an active volunteer for the Retarded Childrens Association of Hartford. A mass of Christian Allrial will be celebrated in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Allcial in St. Mary's Cemetery, Hamden. Memorial contributions may he made to Easter Seal Goodwill Rehabilitation Center, 95 Hamilton St., New Haven, 06511. no picture THERE WILL BE NO CALLING HOURS. SISK BROTHERS FUNERAL HOME IS IN CHARGE OF ARRANGEMENTS.