

Edward T. Falsey, Jr.

July 8, 1922 - February 5, 2018

Edward T. Falsey, Jr. of North Haven, CT and Narragansett, RI, peacefully entered into eternal rest on February 5, 2018. Son of the late Dr. Edward T. Falsey and Emma (Ridinger) Falsey, he was born in New Haven on July 8, 1922. He graduated from St. Rose School, Fair Haven, CT, LaSalle Military Academy, Oakdale, NY and Cornell University College of Arts and Sciences, Ithaca, NY. During World War II he served as an Army 1st Lieutenant in the Infantry in the European Theater of Operations. Following the war, he graduated from the University of Connecticut School of Law where he was Editor in Chief of the Connecticut Law Review. After graduation he was associated with the New Haven law firm of O'Keefe, Johnson & O'Keefe before establishing his own law firm. In 1964 he was elected Judge of Probate for the Town of North Haven, a position he held until his retirement in 1992.

Predeceased by his wife, Marie (Flynn) Falsey and his sister, Evelyn (Falsey) Dwyer, he is survived by his three children, Ann M. Falsey of Branford, CT, Edward T. Falsey (Daphne R. Vayos) of Avon, CT, and Marie T. Falsey of North Haven, CT and his grandchildren, Alexandra M. Falsey of Avon, CT and Peter E. Falsey of Boston, MA.

“ Marie, Ann and Ed,
I am very sorry to hear of the passing of your Dad! I remember him and your Mom from when we were very young as well as seeing your Dad going to church in the later years.
They both were very kind people. May he Rest In Peace.
Fondly,
Mary Sue Smith FitzSimons

“ Mimi:

My condolences on your dad's passing, which is a loss, of sorts, for my family, too. His father (your grandfather), Dr. Edward T. Falsey, was the best friend of my grandfather, John H. Connelly of Branford.

“ My condolences to "Uncle" Eddie's entire family. "Uncle" Eddie Falsey was my late father's best friend from the old Fair Haven days when they were youngsters, and that relationship continued until my dad passed away in 1999. I was honored to have "Uncle" Eddie as godfather. While I haven't lived in or visited home in Hamden very frequently over the years, I know my younger brother Kevin has stayed in touch. I still have fond memories of "Uncle" Eddie from my younger days when he helped me with some troublesome math problems. May he rest in peace.

I was so sorry to hear of your father's passing. Although I did not know him that well, all the times I've seen him, he always had a cheerful smile and made me smile too. He will be missed not only by me but his family, friends and especially his furry grand babies. My thoughts and prayers are with you always.

“ I have many fond memories of Uncle Eddie from when I would be visiting at Evie's home next door. My favorite one involves my daughter Denise, when she was little. On Halloween, Auntie and Uncle, true to form, would be waiting at their door for Denise to "Trick or Treat. Always, there was a special present just for her! They would dutifully fuss over Denise, and tell her they were waiting to see her because she was special to them! Denise glowed and they glowed.

May Uncle Eddie rest in peace beside his lovely wife, Marie.

Love and profound sympathy for your loss.
