“ Mr. Simpson is truly an honorable, loving, and reverent man. I have always, and will continue to, look up to him with pride as the symbol of a great nation too. Without his warm character and good nature, I think my summer's growing up at Lake Winnepesaukee would be lacking in many ways. As a part of my childhood, adolescence, and adulthood, Mr. Simpson will be truly missed and will remain a part of me forever. And for that I thank the Simpson family, as a whole, for sharing such a wonderful person with the Piscopo family. And although I can not physically attend the celebration for Mr. Simpson's life, I want you to help me say "I love you." Thank you.

“ Dear Mrs Simpson, Noreen, Billy, Tommy and your extended family, I am so sorry to learn of Mr. Simpson's death. When I think of my neighbor across the street on Montowese Ave, three things come to mind: devotion to family, church and working hard. I hope you all find comfort in your memories. With Deepest Sympathy, Lorraine
