

Eileen Schreck

July 14, 2012

Eileen Canning Schreck ("Sweet Sixteen" for the past 63 years), accompanied by her patron St. Anne, joyfully entered into the arms of her Savior on July 14, 2012. She was lovingly attended by her husband, four living sons, three daughters, four daughters-in-law, three sons-in-law, twenty-one grandchildren and one great grandchild. A native Fair Havener, she was the youngest daughter of the late Edward Canning and Mary McGovern Canning of County Leitrim, Ireland. Eileen graduated from St. Francis Grammar School and St. Mary's High School. She was employed in the public relations department of the Southern New England Telephone Company. She made her home in Westbrook, CT where she was a daily communicant at St. Marks Church and served as a Eucharistic Minister and Adorer. She is survived by her husband, Robert Schreck, sons Peter Schreck and wife Denise Levesque; Thomas Schreck; James Schreck and Diann Schreck; Joseph Schreck and wife Sheila, daughters Mary Glynn and husband Michael; Margaret Gilhuly and husband Robert; Eileen Schreck and husband Ken Mathews; daughter-in-law Stacy Schreck. She is also survived by twenty-one cherished grandchildren, a great grandchild, her loving sister Mary Reynolds, brother-in-law Martin King and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her son Robert Schreck, and sisters Alice White, Elizabeth Donahue and Kathryn King.

Friends are invited to go directly to St. Francis Church, 423 Ferry St., New Haven on Wednesday where a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10:30 am. Burial will follow in All Saints Cemetery. There are no calling hours. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated on Saturday, July 21 at 9:00 am at St. Marks Church, Westbrook, CT. In lieu of flowers, contributions are requested to be made to St. Francis School, 423 Ferry St., New Haven, CT 06513 or St. Marks Church 222 McVeagh Rd., Westbrook, CT, 06498.
