“ I was so saddened when I learned of the recent passing of Betty. Besides being my neighbor & friend, her parents & my parents were professional friends. Johnnie & Betty were my childhood friends, at Putnam Avenue School & we played at Hamden Hall. Incredibly, Betty was my wife Jane’s “little sister” at St. Joseph’s College. I want to express my sincere empathy for the departure of such a wonderful person.
Johnny & Butch, please know that my Jane will have a special place set for Betty at the table of Our Lord, where we all hope to be. With warmest loving concern & prayers for Betty & to all our McNamara friends.

“ My husband, Michael Farrell, was very fond of Betty through their comraderie with the Gaelic Players at the Irish Club. But it was at his wake when Betty invited me to become a part of their group. She just wrapped her loving arms around me and welcomed me. That's what I will always remember.
