“ Auntie Betsy was a ray of sunshine and not just because of her perfectly coiffed blond hair. She was always such a positive, warm, caring, loving person. Auntie Betsy was always beautifully put together and accessorized to perfection. A beautiful soul inside and out.

We were lucky to be a part of her family. I will always remember all of the times we ate dinner at Amato's and at her house. I especially remember the time she loosened the salad dressing cap and I didn't know until I shook it and got oil on her carpet. I was horrified but she was so nice about it. I remember our times we went tanning and I had so many nice times and conversations with her. I know my mother also loved her very, very much.

Auntie Betsy is with all of her brothers and sisters, Granny, Uncle George and Muffins, but she will always be in our hearts and in our memories. I love Auntie Bets very much.

Love Pamela D'Amato (Muffin Tuffin, Honeybunch)
