“ Laura, Jim and I send our love and sincerest condolences to you. Aunt Vera was a caring and loving wife, daughter, mother and aunt. My heart goes out to you, Laura, and to my mother Angela and aunts Shirlee and Sally for the loss of their oldest sister. I have some fond memories to share--parties on Vera and Tony's porch enjoying their hospitality and delicious food, seeing her with Laura in the Linear Park, a lovely 35th anniversary celebration for Vera and Tony. Their love was deep and tender, and will endure for eternity now that they are together again. Aunt Vera's devotion to her church and family was very strong. and we will all miss her. Although we cannot be with you for her service, we are there in spirit and mourn her passing deeply. All Our Love, Adrienne & Jim Sperruzzi
