“ *Dear Cousins Janet, Paul & Ernie,
We want to send our deepest condolences on the loss of your Father and our "Uncle Gino". Upon hearing the sad news, I was flooded with the fond memories of Main St & Manser Rd. From the first time my Dad , Uncle Gino and the cousins went to see the parcel of land and Red Barn that was to be torn down and our homes to be built. It was a time in my life I will never forget. We were all fortunate to have parents that wanted our families to be close. A Taddei family picnic, during our youth, was surely an example and an event . And how fortunate we are of the efforts of your Parents to afford that experience and memories that we are able to look fondly upon forever. Uncle Gino will be dearly missed but we can always think about the good times and bring a smile to our faces.*

*Love ,
Val Jr, Laura, Gessica & Val III*
