

Eunice Gibson

September 4, 1931 - November 9, 2011

Eunice Gibson 80, of Hamden passed away on November 9, 2011. She is survived by her children, Lynn (Richard) Kisner of Avon, Kathryn (Ted) Stevens of North Haven and James (Patricia) Gibson Jr. of Plano, TX as well as her five grandchildren, Ted Jr. and Tara Stevens, Bryan Kisner, and James III and Natalie Gibson. Also surviving her are her sisters-in-law, Eileen Gibson of Norwalk, Joyce Mullane of Orlando, FL and Monica Klansky of Rochester, NY. She was predeceased by her parents, Fred and Kathryn Hansen. Her husband of 58 years, James Gibson, passed away on September 5, of this year. A native of Bridgeport, Mrs. Gibson was a graduate of Bassick High School. She was a devoted mother and wife to her husband Jim, who retired from the Southern Connecticut Gas Company in 1992 as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Following his retirement, Mr. & Mrs. Gibson enjoyed traveling, including trips to the Caribbean Islands as well as various European destinations. Mrs. Gibson took particular pride in her children and grandchildren. Known for her steadfast support of their various endeavors, she will be dearly missed by her family. She was also an active parishioner at the Church of the Ascension in Hamden and for many years was an integral part of her neighborhood on Norman Rd. where she leaves many close friends. She took pleasure in cultivating and sharing houseplants and was an animal lover. In January, Mrs. Gibson moved with her husband to Whitney Center and greatly enjoyed her brief time there, while making many new friends. Funeral from Sisk Brothers Funeral Home 3105 Whitney Ave.
