

Frances Sisk Stillman

June 6, 1942 - May 6, 2026

Frances Sisk Stillman, passed away peacefully at her home in Naples, Florida on May 18, 2026, leaving behind a life richly lived. Born on June 6, 1942, in New Haven, Connecticut; the youngest daughter of Edward and Alice Sisk. Frances was a woman of elegance, intellect, and deep artistic spirit. She was predeceased by her stepson Robert Stillman and is survived by her sons Timothy Stillman (wife Chaille Cohen) and Edward Stillman, and was the cherished sister to Edward, Thomas, Carroll, Patrick, Mary Rose, and Robert Sisk.

Frances graduated from Amity High School and pursued her artistic passions at the Lyme Academy of Fine Arts. Art was never simply a pastime — it was how she experienced the world. Music was equally beloved; she was a devoted patron of the Naples Philharmonic with a deep love of opera and live jazz. She believed in the power of culture and conversation to nourish the soul, and her faith carried her throughout her life.

To her nieces and nephews, who lovingly called her Fifi, she was unforgettable — remembered for her humor, unfiltered wisdom, and the sparkle she brought into every room. Though deeply missed, her spirit lives on in the lives she touched and the memories her family will hold close forever. May she rest in peace. A Mass will be celebrated Saturday June 6, 2026, at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. Friends are asked to go directly to church. Arrangements by Sisk Brothers Funeral Home 3105 Whitney Ave. Hamden, Connecticut.
