“ Frank, Mary Anne, I'm so sorry I didn't see this news in time. I would have gone to the service to pay my respects. My dad always respected yours and loved taking me to Bimonte's back in the day when your mom worked there. I remember your dad and mom as always being so friendly and caring. I hope they are together and at peace now and you will be comforted by all the well wishes and good memories you have of your father.
