

Frederick J. Carew Jr.

May 22, 1930 - June 18, 2026

Frederick J Carew Jr. (1930 – 2026) of Northford, passed away at age 96. A devoted husband, father, uncle, carpenter, veteran, and New Deal democrat, he is remembered by his large and extended group of family and friends. He is survived by his wife Kathleen Hanrahan Cullagh, his sons Frederick and Michael Carew, grandchildren, great grandchildren, step children, nieces, and nephews. He was predeceased by his first wife Corrinne Perkins, son Paul Carew and his four siblings Betty, Jack, Ann Marie and Eileen.

Born in New Haven he was the first in his family to graduate from college. After attending night school while building a house and raising a young family, he received an A.S. degree from what is now The University of New Haven. Fred was a guy's guy. If you needed help he was the one for the job. It didn't matter how old you were or where you were he was there to help you out and your secret was safe with him.

He was always generous and willing to extend a loan. He remembered what it was like to be short of cash. His fellow construction workers could always rely on him for a few extra bucks to see them through to pay day.

He was never a tough guy. He was kind, sentimental and made friends with any one he met. He was also a great dancer.

In his first act he married Corrinne and they had three sons. After her death he started his second act when he married Kathy and was adopted by the extended Cullagh family and where he got three more sons and his first daughter. He may be the only man in history to have loved every one of his in-laws.

Burial will be June 30th at Northford Cemetery after an 11:00 a.m. funeral mass at Saint Monica's church in Northford.
