“ Gail was always fun to shop with and get a deal at a thrift store!

I will miss our fun times together having a glass of wine and talking about our travel adventures

“ We feel privileged to have know Gail for over a decade as our magnificent neighbor. She was truly such a lovely person- friendly, kind and very helpful, even offering her gardening assistance one Spring. We shared several delicious meals together over the years and many impromptu conversations in the parking lot as we came and went through life each day. We will miss her more than words can ever convey, may God bless. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends. Love and Sympathy, Nannette and Avery Paul

“ Gail was part of the Golf group that I am in. Saw her this past Monday, she yelled over to me Hello Mary Lou and I waived back as she sped by me on a golf cart. Really enjoyed Gail, She was rushing to make her tee time. For me personally I wished I'd known her longer. God Bless Her. Her Friend Mary Lou

“ *Dan,
I was so sorry to hear of Gail's passing. While I only met her that one day when you were here in New London, she struck me as a lovely human being.
My deepest condolences to you and your family for your profound loss.

“ Dear Dan and Family,

*Gail - what an amazing woman!
I feel privileged to call her my very special friend. While walking many miles together at Cove Cay, we would solve world issues, never at a loss for words. She always had an ear for anyone needing comfort & compassion. Friends and family were her passion. Her memories will live on in my heart.
Gail will be dearly missed.*

*My heart aches for you.

“ Gail and I became very close over the 20 years I knew her. We talked and shared; gave each other advice and often just listened. She valued her friendships and knew what it meant to be a friend. We talked often about relationships and how they need to be nurtured. She never took anyone for granted and after her family, her friends were the most important things in her life. I miss you terribly, Gail, and our friendship will always live in a special place in my heart.

God bless you,
Carol
