“ The day the Kenny family moved to Lynmoor Pl, marked a high moment of happiness for my daughter, Kellyn, because not only was Emily in her school class but also would become a close friend. Gary was more often than not present when the girls got together. His example of a very caring and loving father left an indelible impression upon Kellyn. Jane and Gary undertook home improvement projects, and we all marveled at the results. Gary lent his time, muscles and truck when my family decided to clean out our barn/garage after my father’s death. Gary happily enjoyed my mother’s pepper/ sausage subs as payment; nothing more. I think Gary had a very inquisitive mind, and was interested in life’s meaning. Time passed and our paths went in different directions, but heartfelt memories of moments spent in the company of Gary are everlasting. I’m glad that my family and I crossed Gary’s path. You remain in my thoughts—Jane, Emily, Ashley and your family.

“ Gary loved you all with his entire being.... he made the best beef stew I ever had. I remember he would come by the office in hamden way back when everyday to bring Jane a coffee or a frappe . We had many great times in Nowank on the boat. He had a great wit and sense of humor. All my and condolences to to you all.

“ Gary was the most loving man I have ever known. I’m not just saying that because he was my father. Seeing how everyone has reacted to his passing is a true testament to his unconditional loving and compassionate way of life. I will never be the same and will miss him more than I could ever imagine❤️
